Re: In the Matter of Applications of T-Mobile US, Inc. and Sprint Corporation, Consolidated Applications for Consent to Transfer Control of Licenses and Authorizations, WT Docket No. 18-197,

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER IN WT DOCKET NO. 18-197 BEFORE
THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Altice USA, Inc. (“Altice”) hereby responds to the October 4, 2018 General Information and Document Request (“Information Request”) from the Federal Communications Commission (the “Commission”) in the above captioned proceeding.¹

Pursuant to discussions with Commission staff, all documents provided in response to the Information Request are designated “Highly Confidential” per the Protective Order.² Additionally, per discussions with Commission staff, Altice is providing herein all documents previously provided to the U.S. Department of Justice (the “DOJ”) in connection with the instant transaction, which is a partial response to Request 1(a)-(f) in the Information Request. Altice will supplement its response with additional responsive documents to Request 1(a)-(f) on a rolling basis. Altice seeks to complete its response to the Information Request by the end of December 2018. Pursuant to the same discussions, Altice is limiting its response to Altice’s domestic operations in the United States and to the time period specified by the DOJ, July 2016 to present.

Enclosed, please find:

- A DVD containing the load files that constitute the documents produced to date to the DOJ in connection with the instant transaction. The entire production and each
